

WOODS

Your Independent, Family Owned and Operated Travel Service

FALSE

Rumours of a national takeover

We have been fortunate enough to make it through these trying times, and our thoughts are with the many businesses in the UK who were forced to close their doors.

Specifically, in the coach operator sector, many family-run businesses have been taken over by larger companies looking to expand.

There has recently been an intensive marketing campaign by a national company to introduce their new brand which has caused some confusion as they own a company with a very similar name to ours based in Leicestershire.

We would like to take this opportunity to reassure our customers and potential customers that we have NOT been taken over, nor have we sold Woods Travel.

We are proud to still be independent, offering first class day trips and holidays by coach and private coach hire as well as an ABTA bonded travel agency specialising in all types of cruising holidays.

“ Woods have been in business for 52 years this year. Here is to the next 52 years of providing a complete travel service to our wonderful customers ”

Best wishes from Kristy, Tina and the entire Woods team, both office staff and drivers
