

Exciting changes are coming.

New name. Same heart.

We're making a few changes to some of our key hotels across the United Kingdom, designed to make your experience with us even more perfect.

From August 2022 we're pleased to announce that we will be transitioning a number of our portfolio of Marriott Hotels to the Delta Hotels by Marriott brand.

We're here to make your experience even more comfortable, with your enjoyment at heart. We're pleased to deliver Delta's dedication to delivering details that truly matter at our collection of 23 hotels across the United Kingdom. You'll see the change happening at:

This change means that some of the hotels that you know so well will be undergoing an exciting refresh through the coming months, including guest rooms, lounges, meetings and public spaces. Every effort has been taken to ensure minimal disruption to your experience at the hotel, with most changes impacting small areas of the hotel at a time.

At Delta Hotels by Marriott, we simplify travel so you can focus on what's important. From the free water in your room to the complimentary, high-speed Wi-fi throughout each hotel, we make sure you have what you need to stay productive while staying with us.

We're still part of Marriott Bonvoy™, the world's best loyalty program. So you can still earn points with every qualifying stay. In addition, you can enjoy member benefits like our mobile app, exclusive member rates, free Wi-Fi and more.

We look forward to welcoming you to Delta Hotels by Marriott.
